

SHCY Conference 2015 Preliminary Program March 2015

UBC Vancouver, British Columbia

Wednesday, June 24, 2015

9:00-11:00 Conference Registration, Party Room/Foyer, Second Floor, Old SUB

11:00-12:00 Lunch, Party Room/Foyer, Old SUB

12:00-1:30 Session A

A1, Old SUB 205: Black Girlhoods and Cultures of Sexuality: Race, Age and Gendered Expectations

Chair: Marcia Chatelain, Georgetown University

“Jazzing with Boys and the Other Secrets of Great Migration Youth” Marcia Chatelain, Georgetown University

“A well-talked-about affair: Black Debutantes and the Cotillion in the Washington Afro-American” Miya Carey, Rutgers University

“Black Girlhood and Adolescent Sexual Culture in the Postwar U.S.” Amanda H. Littauer, Northern Illinois University

“Racing Gender, Racing Age: Negating Discourses and Ageless Black Girl/Women in the 19th Century” Tammy Cherelle Owens, University of Minnesota-Twin Cities

A2, Old SUB 211: Youthful Performance on Multiple Stages: Child Actresses in the Nineteenth and Early Twentieth-Century Transatlantic and Transnational Worlds

Chair: Kristine Alexander, University of Lethbridge

“‘I didn’t have any childhood’: Child Actresses on Canadian and Transnational Stages, 1880s-1920s” Cecilia Morgan, Ontario Institute for Studies in Education

“The Manager’s Daughter: Managing Empire Through Virtuosity” Marlis Schweitzer, York University

“Complexities of Watching, Embodying, and Knowing: Juvenile Girls and Victorian “Oriental” At-Home Theatricals” Heather Fitzsimmons Frey, University of Toronto

A3, Old SUB 207/09: Youth at the Intersection of Modern Political Change Around the Globe

Chair: Rebecca de Schweinitz, Brigham Young University

“The Morning Sun: Youth as Global Revolutionaries in Maoist China”
Zachary Scarlett, Butler University

“Fascist Childhoods: 1918-1945, A Comparative View” Till Kossler, Institute for Education

“ ‘The Revolution Will Get Legit’: The Eighteen Year Old Vote and the “New Politics” of the 1970s” Rebecca de Schweinitz, Brigham Young University

“Just ‘Cannon-Fodder’: High School Students and Youthful Political Mobilization in Brazil, 1948-1989” Colin Snider, University of Texas-Tyler

“ ‘Keeping Children Safe is Good Business’: Conscientious Consumerism and the Politics of Child Protection, 1980-1987” Paul Mokrzycki, University of Iowa

A4, Old SUB Council: Literature Reflects Childhood/Childhood Reflects Literature

Chair: Laura Lovett, University of Massachusetts

“ ‘A lullaby too rough’: Losing Children at Home and Abroad in The Winter’s Tale”
Anna-Claire Simpson, University of Massachusetts-Amherst

“A Slave Autobiography Reshaped for Antebellum African American Children: African Free School” Valentina Tikoff, Loyola University Chicago

“Perceptions of Gender Nonconformity: An Examination of the Relational Triad of Child and Adult Response to a Classic Children’s Picture Book” Sharon McQueen, Old Dominion University

“Caribbean Stepsisters: Cinderella, Circulation, and the Intimate Negotiation of Race within Transatlantic Families” Courtney Weikle-Mills, University of Pittsburgh

A5, Old SUB 214/16: Childhood and the Law I: Who Counts as a Child or an Adult?

Chair: Michael Grossberg, Indiana University

“ ‘Baby Wives’ and ‘Girl Mothers’: Statutory Marriage Ages and the Circumscription of Girlhood in the Antebellum United States” Nicholas Syrett, University of Northern Colorado

“Defining the Child: Palestinian Families and the Juvenile Court, 1920-1948” Julia Shatz, University of California-Berkeley

“Sexual Crimes, Forensic Proofs of Age and the Performance of Childhood in Colonial India, 1920s and 30s” Ishita Pande, Queen's University

A6, Old SUB 212A: Inside and Outside the Institution: Shaping Identities, Relationships, and Spaces

Chair: Jim Marten, Marquette University

“The Social World of St. Louis Child Refugees, Orphans, and Contrabands during the Civil War” William McGovern, University of California-San Diego

“Performing Respectability: Orphans and the Public Gaze in 19th and 20th Century Ontario” Tara Brookfield, Wilfrid Laurier University

“Institutionalization vs. Incarceration: Relationships Formed at the Wisconsin School for Girls, 1941-1958” Charissa Keup, California State University-Long Beach

“Relationships in Residential Child Care: History, Theory and Practice,” Andrew Kendrick, University of Strathclyde

1:30-2:00 Coffee Break, Old SUB Party Room

2:00-3:30 Session B

B1, Old SUB 205: Round Table Discussion: Recent Innovations and Future Directions in the History of Black Girlhood

Chair: Corinne T. Field, University of Virginia

Marcia Chatelain, Georgetown University

LaKisha Michelle Simmons, University of Buffalo, SUNY

Rhian Keyse, University of Exeter

Tammy Cherelle Owens, University of Minnesota-Twin Cities

B2, Old SUB 211: Childhood and Membership: Social, Political, Racial and Embodied

Chair: Marie-Louise Ermisch, McGill University

“When Boys Roam the Streets: Programming for Positive Youth Development at the Boys and Girls Clubs of America, 1893-2004” Jacquelyn Baker-Sennett, Western Washington University

“ ‘Making and Keeping Friends’: Teenagers and Social Acceptance in 1950s United States” Molly Jessup, Syracuse University

“Girlhood and Germanization in the Reichsgau Wartheland, 1939-1944” Kara Ritzheimer, Oregon State University

“Wanted: White Jewish Babies: Intersections of Ethnicity, Race, Ability, and the Body in Jewish Adoption Regulation in Montreal, 1945-1969” Andrea Eiding, Kwantlen Polytechnic University

B3, Old SUB 207/09: Belonging in a Time of Crisis: Youth, Nation and Duty in Depression and War, US and Britain, 1930-1960

Chair: Gabe Rosenberg, Duke University

“ ‘Striking out the Reds’: Community, Communism, and American Legion Baseball during the Depression” Susan Miller, Rutgers University

“ ‘A World-Wide Fellowship of Boys’: The Meccano Guild and War, 1930-1945” Lynne Vallone, Rutgers University

“ ‘You Can Help on the Kitchen Front’: Domesticity and National Service in the British Girl Guide Organisation during the Second World War” Sian Edwards, University of Sussex

“ ‘Are You A Crusader?’ Cold War Citizenship in the Boy Scouts of America” Mischa Honeck, German Historical Institute

B4, Old SUB Council: Youth Identity and Belonging: Social, Political, Economic Ties

Chair: Heather E. McGregor, University of British Columbia

“Immigration, Schooling, and Belonging in Canada ca. 1913” Jason Ellis, University of British Columbia

“Home-School/School-Home: Children, Belonging, and Education in the British Empire, 1900-1940” Rachel Neiwert, St. Catherine University

“Searching For Belonging: Two Immigrant Young Adults Reflect On Their Place-Trajectories” Erin Spring, University of Lethbridge

“Chander Pahar: Imagined Geographies and National Identity in Bibhutibhushan Bandopadhyay’s Mountain of the Moon” Sreemoyee Dasgupta, University of Pittsburgh

B5, Old SUB 212A: Childhood and the Law II: Childhood and the (De)recognition of Relationships

Chair: Nicholas Syrett, University of Northern Colorado

“Brothers and Sisters before the Judge: Sibling Relationship and Civil Law in Buenos Aires, 1890 to 1920” Juandrea Bates, University of Texas at Austin

“Baby Girl(s) and Indian Law,” Gina Marie Ocasion, University of Massachusetts-Amherst

“ ‘I was afraid, and did not know the Consequence’: Boys, Sodomy, and the British Navy’s High Court Admiralty” Kristen McCabe Lashua, University of Virginia

B6, Old SUB 214/16: All over the place? Globalising the History of Children and Childhood in the British World

Chair: Simon Sleight, King's College London

“The World in Miniature” Simon Sleight, King's College London

“Resistance and Race: Aboriginal Child Workers in Colonial Australia” Shirleene Robinson, Macquarie University

“ ‘She’s not a philanthropist but a passenger agent of the sharpest description’: Maria Rye’s Emigration Home for Destitute Little Girls and the places of children and empire, 1869-1895” Ray Thornton, Princeton University

“Memorialising Settler Childhoods in the British World: From World War I to Child Migrants” Kate Darian-Smith, University of Melbourne

4:00-5:30 Welcome Remarks and Keynote Address, Hennings 200

Professor Karen Dubinsky

5:45-8:00 Welcome Reception, New SUB Rooftop Garden

Thursday, June 25

8:30-10:00 Session C

C1, Old SUB 205: Relations of Reciprocity: The Roles, Rights, and Protections of Youth in Wartime North America

Chair: Kriste Lindenmeyer, Rutgers University-Camden

“ ‘1,200,000 Needed in 1944’: Emergency Youth Farmworkers in World War II”
Jennifer Robin Terry, University of California-Berkeley

“ ‘Voluntold’: Child Labour in the Canadian Red Cross, 1899-1970” Sarah Glassford, University of Prince Edward Island

“ ‘Old Enough to Fight, Old Enough to Vote’: Military Service and the Minimum Voting Age in Postwar America” Jenny Diamond Cheng, Vanderbilt University

C2, Old SUB 207/09: New Women and Modern Girls: Edges of Race, Gender, and Generational Belonging in the US, 1870-1933

Chair: Melissa R. Klapper, Rowan University

“Youth, Racial Segregation, and Generational Belonging: Creating Rituals of Generational Succession in White and Black U.S. Woman Suffrage Organizations, 1870-1900” Corinne T. Field, University of Virginia

“ ‘Normal’ Tomboys: Regendering Tomboys at the Turn of the Century” Renee Sentilles, Case Western Reserve University

“New Negro Childhood: Jessie Redmond Fauset’s Representations of Modern Girls”
LaKisha Michelle Simmons, University of Buffalo, SUNY

C3, Old SUB 211: Creating Print Communities: Youth and Belonging Through Periodicals in Britain, South Africa and the United States

Chair: Paul Ringel, High Point University

“Round the Evening Lamp: Models of Community in Post-Civil War American Children’s Magazines, 1865-1880” Paul Ringel, High Point University

“‘The Cool Four Million’: Imagining Youth in 1960s Britain” Helena Mills, University College

“Bringing ‘honour to [their] people’: Children and the Reinvention of South Africa’s Coloured Community through the APO newspaper, 1909-1914” Patricia van der Spuy, Castleton College

C4, Old SUB Council: Youth, Children and Sexuality: Tensions and Contradictions

Chair: Megan Longstaffe, University of British Columbia

“Growing Up Beyond the Binary, Before the Fact: the Memoir of Frances “Frank” Shimer, 1826-1901” Rachel Hope Cleves, University of Victoria

“Regulating Recreation: Maternal Sexuality and Children’s Welfare in Cold War Vancouver” Anika Tilland-Stafford, Simon Fraser University

“Adolescents’ Memories of Childhood: How Memories of Innocence Can Smother Lived Experiences” Lindsay Herriot, University of Alberta

“The Red Scare: Narratives of Shame in Twentieth-Century Mexico” Erin Graham, Michigan State University

C5, Old SUB 214/216: “Relating to Hard Times of Their Own”: Child and Youth-Centred Approaches to Economic Crisis

Chair: Leslie Paris, University of British Columbia

‘I Stay at Home Myself: Family Economies, Gender, and the Family Court System in the Great Depression,’ Lara Campbell, Simon Fraser University

“Corresponding Couples: The Impact of the Great Depression on the Timing of Marriage” Heidi MacDonald, University of Lethbridge

“Preserving families to preserve the nation: Youth culture, memory, and New Deal Homestead Communities,” Melissa Bingmann, West Virginia University

C6, Old SUB 212A: Media and Market Relations: Rousing, Regulating and Responding to Children's Consumption from Patent Medicines to Pac Man

Chair: Helle Strandgaard Jensen, University of Copenhagen

“A Classroom for Consumer Society: ‘Practical Education,’ Part-time Jobs and Secondary School Reform in Canada’s First Post-WWII Decade” Katharine Rollwagen, Vancouver Island University

“Belonging in the Act: Children in Canadian Broadcasting Policy” Natalie Coulter, York University

“ ‘To Market, to Market’: A New Look at Children and the Consumer Marketplace, 1860-1900” Cheryl Williams, York University

“ ‘The Ruin of a Generation’: Video Arcades, Youth and Social Regulation in Canada”
Braden Hutchinson, Independent Scholar

10:00-10:30 Coffee Break, Old SUB Party Room

10:30-12:00 Session D

D1, Old SUB 214-16: Market Relations: The Commodification of the Child

Chair: Nell Musgrove, Australian Catholic University

“What Price a Child? Commodification and Australian Adoption Practice 1850-1950”
Shurlee Swain, Australian Catholic University

“African American Children and Placing Out: Examining Race in Home Finding” Megan Birk, University of Texas Pan American

“Advertising Suitable Parent: Assessments and Presentations of Adoption Applicants for Intercountry Adoption” Judith Lind, Linköping University & Cecilia Lindgren, Linköping University

“The Wild West and the Commodification of Indian Childhood” Martin Woodside, Rutgers University-Camden

D2, Old SUB 211: Polar Pupils: Childhood and Learning in Canada's Northern Regions

Chair: Jason Ellis, University of British Columbia

“ ‘To Live Like White Men or to Live Like Eskimos’: The Canadian Arctic Scouting Program” James Trepanier, Canadian Museum of History

“Schooling & Childhood in Nunavut: A Matrix of Sites and Forms” Heather E. McGregor, University of British Columbia

“ ‘They Certainly Did Have a Lot of Strange Ideas’: Twentieth-Century Gender and Sexualities at Hostels in the Inuvik Region, Northwest Territories” Crystal Fraser, University of Alberta

D3, Old SUB 207/09: Planning for Bodies: Professionals and the Invasive State

Chair: Mona Gleason, University of British Columbia

“Guidance Clinics and Eugenic Sterilization in Alberta, 1929-1972” Amy Samson, University of Alberta

“Criminal, Normal, Psychiatric Deviance: Abortion and Welfare for Women and Children in Swedish Films during the 40s” Bengt Sandin, University of Linköping

“Panic over Puberty: Sex, Sterilization, and Intellectual Disability in the 1970s” Molly Ladd-Taylor, York University

“Between Expertise and Care: Youth Confronting Medical and Psychological Expertise on Juvenile Delinquency in Post-World War II Belgium and France, David Niget, University of Angers

D4, Old SUB Council: Government, Diplomacy, and Childhood Since World War II

Chair: Victoria Grieve, Utah State University

“A Small Paintbrush in the Hands of a Small Child: Art Exchange Programs and the Cold War” Victoria Grieve, Utah State University

“Dear Mr. President Ike: Race, Gender, and Imagined Relationships in Children’s Letters to Dwight D. Eisenhower” Cara Elliott, The College of William and Mary

“Children and the Trauma of War: The Place of Children in Mainland China, 1945-1953” Melissa Brzycki, University of California-Santa Cruz

D5, Old SUB 212A: Round Table: Writing a Global History of Childhood, Youth and Emotions

Chair: Stephanie Olsen, Max Planck Institute for Human Development

Stephanie Olsen, Max Planck Institute for Human Development

Kristine Alexander, University of Lethbridge

Lydia Murdoch, Vassar College

Hugh Morrison, University of Otago

Ishita Pande, Queen’s University

D6, Old SUB 205 Consuming Culture, Constructing Youth: Products and Memory

Chair: Janice Newberry, University of Lethbridge

“Edible Childhood and Kid Collectors: Food Trade Cards in America, 1870s – 1880s”
Brandi J. Venable, Rutgers University – Camden

“A Panacea for Pain: Band-Aid’s Historical Construction of Mother-Child Relationships”
Meredith Bak, Rutgers University – Camden

Nordic Childhood and Children’s Consumption of Cultural Products: Narratives of Adult Actors Looking Back” Tora Korsvold, Queen Maud University College

12:00-1:45 Lunch and SHCY Business Meeting, Old SUB Party Room

2:00-3:30 Session E

E1, Old SUB 205: Delinquency, Pathology and Disability in the Making of the Hard-to-Place Child

Chair: E. Wayne Carp, Pacific Lutheran University

“Potential Disability as a Barrier to Permanent Placement” Sandy Sufian, University of Illinois-Chicago

“ ‘It was Really a Home to Me’: The Placement of Orphans at the Missouri State Industrial Home for Negro Girls, 1930-1940” Leroy Rowe, University of Southern Maine

“Discovering Foster Children’s Pathology in Post-War America” Catherine Rymph, University of Missouri

E2, Old SUB 211: Education and the Marginalized Child

Chair: Steve Mintz, University of Texas at Austin

“The Roma access to education in Sweden 1930-1960: Eugenics, Talent Measurement and School” Thom Axelsson, University of Malmo

“ ‘You ought to be proud, girl, to have such a friend’: Letters From Ontario’s Blind Children, 1902 – 1912” Joanna L. Pearce, York University

“Management of the Immigrant Child as a State Crafting Grammar – Educational-administrative responses to the immigrant child in the Danish welfare nation-state 1970-2013” Marta Padovan-Ozdemir, University of Copenhagen & Bolette Moldenhawer, University of Copenhagen

“The Monitorial System as the ‘Bullying System’ in Nineteenth-Century English Boarding Schools” Catherine Sloan, The Queen's College, Oxford

E3, Old SUB 207/09: The Politics and Cultures of Youth Mobility in the Late Twentieth Century

Chair: David M. Pomfret, University of Hong Kong

Commentator: Anne Gorsuch, University of British Columbia

“The ‘Magic Center of Europe’: Backpackers in Amsterdam, c.1970” Richard Ivan Jobs, Pacific University

“Dramatizing the Space of Shinjuku: Violence, Theater, and Voice in Tokyo, 1968-1969” William Marotti, University of California-Los Angeles

“Crash Pads and Freak-Out Rooms: In the Local Gaze, Vancouverites and the National Youth Hostel Task Force,” Linda Mahood, University of Guelph

E4, Old SUB 212A: Explorations in the Extracurricular: A Round Table

Chair: Paula S. Fass, University of California, Berkeley

“Ballet Class in America: A Social History” Melissa R. Klapper, Rowan University

“ ‘An Entirely New Interest Has Been Taken by the School’: The American High School Extracurriculum, Educational Values, and the Role of the School, 1910-1930” Christen Opsal, University of Minnesota

“Practicing Political Citizenship: Unlocking College Women’s Autonomy Through Extracurricular Activities” Kelly Sartorius, Washington University

“Extracurricular Engagement as National Security: Science Fairs in Postwar America, 1950-1965” Sarah Scripps, University of South Carolina

“A Gallery Venture of an Experimental Nature That Will Open the Gallery to all Children”: The Development of Extracurricular Activities at the Art Gallery of Toronto, Canada, 1920s-1940s” Kate Zankowicz, Ontario Institute for Studies in Education

E5, Old SUB 214/16: Children in the Material World I: An Interdisciplinary Exploration of Material Culture, Identity and Social Relationships

Chair: Jane Eva Baxter, De Paul University

“Childhoods of Memory and Generational Identities: Parents, Children, Nostalgia, and Autonomy in the Material Culture of Modern Childhoods” Jane Eva Baxter, De Paul University

“Discursive and Subversive Mothers’ Little Helpers: Girls’ Chores and Toy Technologies of (Household) Power” Miriam Forman-Brunell, University of Missouri-Kansas City

“The Consuming Collective: Gilded Age Advertisements and the Emergence of the Child as Consumer” Jaelyn N. Schultz, University of California-Santa Cruz

E6, Old SUB Council Room: Citizenship, Children, and the Military

Chair: Patrick Ryan, University of Western Ontario

“Union Orphans and the Legacies of the Civil War” Catherine Jones, University of California-Santa Cruz

“ ‘Pride of the Nation:’ Children in the Union Army during the American Civil War” Frances Clarke, University of Sydney & Rebecca Jo Plant, University of California-San Diego

“Girlhood, Pen-Pal Relationships, and Reconciliation after World War II” Jennifer Helgren, University of the Pacific

3:30-4:00 Coffee Break, Old SUB Party Room

3:45-5:30 SHCY Executive Meeting, History Department Buchanan Tower 1197

4:00-5:30 Session F

F1, Old SUB 205: Love, Sex, and Coming of Age in Nineteenth- and Twentieth-Century Africa

Chair: TBA

“Inventing South African Sexualities: Sex Education, Race, and Youth in the Early Twentieth Century” Sarah Emily Duff, University of Witwatersrand

“From Instruction to Indecent Assault: The Criminalization of Childhood Sexual Play in Colonial East Africa” Corrie Decker, University of California-Davis

“Towards a Global Anatomy of Sexual Development: Race, Class and Imperial Circulations in Medical and Public Discourses on Girls’ Puberty in Belgium and Belgian Congo (1890-1960)” Laura Di Spurio, Free University of Brussels & Amandine Lauro, Free University of Brussels

“Youth, Sexuality and Nightlife in Bamako, Mali (1950s-1970s)” Marie Rodet, University of London

F2, Old SUB 211: More Than Child's Play: Youth Activism in the 1960s United States South

Chair: Marcia Chatelain, Georgetown University

“Preschool Politics: Head Start and the Black Freedom Struggle in Mississippi” Crystal Sanders, Pennsylvania State University

“ ‘Not Old Enough to Know All of It:’ The Business of Childhood and the 1963 Children’s Crusade” Susan Eckelmann, University of Tennessee-Chattanooga

“ ‘Black Power Boys’: Black Youth Activism, The Invaders, and the Black Power” Shirletta J. Kinchen, University of Louisville

F3, Old SUB 207/209: Imagining Colonial Futures: Children and the Politics of Belonging in the British Colonial World

Chair: Hugh Morrison, University of Otago

“ ‘It’s really where your parents were’: Missionary Children, Identity And Connection in Early-Twentieth-Century Mission Contexts” Hugh Morrison, University of Otago

“Health, Transnational Connections And Missionary Childhoods, 1820-70” Mary Clare Martin, University of Greenwich

“Webs of childhood: Making Missions Through (Re)Making Children in Mission Institutions” Rhonda A. Semple, St. Francis Xavier University

“Schooling Power: Teaching Anglo-Civic Duty to Missionary Children in the Hawaiian Islands, 1841-1853” Joy Schulz, Metropolitan Community College

F4, Old SUB Council: Round Table: Moving Images: Visualizing Childhood Across Borders

Co-Chairs: Deborah A. Boehm, University of Nevada and Nadine Attewell, McMaster University

“Knowing through Photos: Meaning and Methodology across the U.S.-Mexico Border”
Deborah A. Boehm, University of Nevada

“Looking Relations: Photography, Intimacy, and the Historiography of Mixed Race”
Nadine Attewell, McMaster University

“Photographs of Children and the Admission of Transnationally Adopted Children to the United States, 1948-1963” Karen Balcom, McMaster University

“Nanny States and Feral Children: On Neoliberal ‘Family Frames’ ” Sarah Trimble, University of Toronto

F5, Old SUB 214/16: Children in the Material World II: An Interdisciplinary Exploration of Material Culture, Identity and Social Relationships

Chair: Jane Eva Baxter, De Paul University

“G Stanley Hall, Child Study, and Historic Preservationism, 1880-1920” Justin Clark, The Pennsylvania State University

“Children, Tools, and the Acquisition of Culture” David Lancy, Utah State University

“Do We Believe That Children Are The Future?” Sarah May, University College London

“Children and Charity in Aunt Judy’s Magazine” Kristine Moruzi, Deakin University

F6, Old SUB 212A: Scouting Ties: The Impacts of Relationships and Belonging in Early American and Swedish Boy and Girl Scouting

PANEL SPONSOR: Green Bar Bill Hillcourt Trust

Chair: Susan Miller, Rutgers University

“Scout Relations: Boy Types, Boys’ Men, and Men’s Men in the Boy Scouts of America, 1910-1930” Ben Jordan, Christian Brothers University

“ ‘A Sister to Every Other Scout’: Disability and Belonging in the Girl Scouts, 1917-1950” Mary Rothschild, Arizona State University & Kate Harper, Arizona State University

“Scouting at Home – Family Virtues and Domestic Ideals in the Swedish Scout Movement 1910–1960” Bjorn Lundberg, Lund University

6:30-8:00 Banquet, Sage Restaurant

8:45-1:00 Dance, Sage Restaurant

All conference participants are welcome!

Friday, June 26

8:30-10:00 Session G

G1, Old SUB 205: Youth and Social Change: belonging, being and becoming in Africa

Chair: Elizabeth Cooper, Simon Fraser University

“From Belonging To ‘Being’ And ‘Becoming’ In Rwanda: Transitioning to Adulthood in the Midst of Systemic Change (1930-1962)” Kirsten Pontalti, University of Oxford

“Relationality and the Impact of Shifting Caregiving Structures on Youth’s Experience of Suffering: The Case of Youth Who Head Households in Kenya” Laura Lee, University of Oxford

“ ‘The Land Grows People’: Youth and Belonging in Rural Northern Uganda” Lara Rosenoff Gavin, University of British Columbia

G2, Old SUB 211: Children and Conceptions of Citizenship: A Global Comparison on the Forms, Language, and Instruments of Civic Engagement

Chair: Joseph Sebastian Passaro, Fordham University

“The Rights and Duties of Fanciulle: Civic Instruction and the Languages of Citizenship for Girls in Nineteenth Century Italy” Joseph Sebastian Passaro, Fordham University

“War, Orphans and Citizenship in the Ottoman Empire” Melis Sulos, CUNY

“Training Tomorrow Citizens: Citizenship Models Conveyed by Catholic Public High School in Quebec (1943–1967)” Andréanne LeBrun, Université de Sherbrooke

“Growing Up under the Banyan Tree–Youth and the Construction of Citizenship in Singapore, 1945 –” Edgar Liao, University of British Columbia

G3, Old SUB 207/09: Familiar and Unfamiliar Relations: Parents, Children, and Siblings from the 18th to the 21st Centuries

Chair: Rachel Hope Cleves, University of Victoria

“Is There An American Childhood? Parents and Children in American History” Paula S. Fass, University of California, Berkeley

“Sibling Love? German Children’s Relations in Ideology and Practice, 1770-1850” Emily Bruce, University of Minnesota-Twin Cities

“Childhood Experiences and Family Dynamics in Modern Mexico” Eileen M. Ford, California State University Los Angeles

“‘She Never Inclined to It’: A Case Study about Children, Family Relationships, and Marital Status in 18th Century England” Amy Harris, Brigham Young University

G4, Old SUB Council: Educating Imperial Children: Imperialism, Transnationalism and Children's Education in the British Empire

Chair: Laura Ishiguro, University of British Columbia

“Cricket, Moccasins and Mother’s Letters: Exploring Transnationalism and Empire in Metis Fur Trade Children’s Education, 1840s-1870s” Erin Millions, University of Manitoba

“For God, Country, and Empire? Irish and New Zealand Boys’ Schools on the Outbreak of the First World War” Charlotte Bennett, University of Oxford

“ ‘Go out to the ends of the earth’: British Girls’ Schools and the Making of Future Empire Builders, c. 1880-1920” Elizabeth Dillenburg, University of Minnesota

G5, Old SUB 214/216: Children and Broken Relationships I

Chair: Stephanie Olsen, Max Planck Institute for Human Development

“Making and Breaking Families: Foster Care in 19th Century Australia” Nell Musgrove, Australian Catholic University

“Representations of Child Death in Nineteenth Century Brazil and England: A Preliminary Comparative Sketch” Luis Lima Vailati, Universidade Federal de Vicosa

“Turning Back the Clock: Legal Emancipation of Child Workers in the 20th-Century U.S. Entertainment Industry” Shauna Vey, New York City College of Technology

G6, Old SUB 212A: Contested Care of Babies

Chair: Mary Clare Martin, University of Greenwich

“Lonely Infants? Germs, Breast-Milk and Maternal Care in Interpreting ‘Hospitalism’, 1897-1945” Katharina Rowold, Roehampton University

“The ‘Brown Babies’ of the 2nd World War: the mixed race offspring of black GIs and white British women” Lucy Bland, Anglia Ruskin University

“A Genealogy of Rupture: Struggles and Spatial Relations in the Making of Transnational Adoptees, from Minnesota to South Korea” Stevie Larson, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

“‘Baby Farming Days Are Not Over’: Baby-Farming in Britain, 1920-1967” Daniel Grey, Plymouth University

10:00-10:30 Coffee Break, Old SUB Party Room

10:30-12:00 Session H

H1, Old SUB 205: Constructing Literary Childhoods: Community in Children's Texts

Chair: Ayu Ratih, University of British Columbia

“Performing Childhood: Community And Children’s Lives In Irish Children’s Literature”
Margot Hillel, Australian Catholic University

“Impenitent tenderness: the Complexity of Lev Kassil’s Konduit and Shvambrania”
Elena Krevsky, MacEwan University

“‘Down the Indian Trail in Books’: Aboriginality and Wild(er)ness in Canadian Children’s Print Culture” Gail Edwards, Douglas College

“Children’s Literature and Genocide: Further Examinations of the Indian Residential School Experience in Canadian Children’s Picture Books and Young Adult Fiction”
Jeffrey Canton, York University

H2, Old SUB 211: Power, Politics, and Resistance in the Lives of the Young

Chair: TBA

“The Magazine as Mentor: Detroit youth, Community, and Creem Magazine” Kristen Hengtgen, Indiana University

“ ‘Child witness hurls missiles at ‘low down shank’ ’: Interactions Between Child Witnesses and Adults in The Criminal Courtroom” Robyn Blewer, Griffith University

“The Image of the Child as Political Propaganda in Spanish Film” Maria Elena Soliño, The University of Houston

“‘Fathers of the World Unite’: Child Rescue and American Masculinity During the Korean War” Risa Katzen, Stanford University

H3, Old SUB 207/09: Round Table: Growing up inside and outside of Classrooms: Schooling and the Poor Child in Colonial India

Chair: Satadru Sen, City University of New York

“Schooling the Poor Child: A dialogue between the Global Poor and the Local Poor in Colonial India” Arun Kumar, Gottingen University

“Schools, Society and Slavery in Nineteenth Century South Travancore: The Female Boarding Schools of the London Missionary Society” Divya Kannan, Jawaharlal Nehru University

“Educating the Children in the Refugee Colonies of post-partition Calcutta” Kaustubh Sengupta, Jawaharlal Nehru University

“Educating the Rural Girls of the United Provinces in the late Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Centuries” Preeti Preeti, Jawaharlal Nehru University

“The New Claims of Ritual Domination: Nampoothiri Children in The Special Schools” Sunandan Kizhakke Nedumpally, German Historical Institute

H4, Old SUB Council: Letters, Relations and Emotions: Exploring Sources and Methods for the Study of Premodern Children and Youth

Chair: Adriana Benzaquén, Mount Saint Vincent University

“ ‘Pray lett none see this impertinent Epistle’: Children’s Letters and Children in Letters in Late Seventeenth-Century England” Adriana Benzaquén, Mount Saint Vincent University

“The Love of a Child in Seventeenth-Century Scotland: The Historical Construction of Children’s Emotions and the Stability of Society” Janay Nugent, University of Lethbridge

“Grooming Political Allies from Childhood: Patronage and Families in Renaissance Florence in the Age of the Medici” Mary Beth Benbenek, Turin Educational Consortium

“Observation, Emotion and Educational Travel in Early Eighteenth-Century Europe” Kelly J. Whitmer, Sewanee: The University of the South & Lauren Lyons, Sewanee: The University of the South

H5, Old SUB 214/216: Children and Broken Relationships II

Chair: TBA

“ ‘Victims’ of Divorce?’: Children and Narratives of Marital Breakdown in the United States, 1900-1950” Kristin Ceello, City University of New York

“Bitter Tales: Children’s Sensory Construction of Domestic Space in Atlantic Canada, 1939-1945” Barbara Lorenzkowski, Concordia University

“Children's spirits are easily damaged thereby:” Emotions in Danish Custody and Visitation Rights Conflicts in the 1920s” Cecilie Bjerre, University of Southern Denmark

H6, Old SUB 212A: Belonging and Borders: Children and Youth in the Nuclear Age

Chair: Donna Alvah, St. Lawrence University

“Children and the Prospect of Nuclear War: Adult Protectors and the Empowerment of Children and Youth, 1960s-1980s” Donna Alvah, St. Lawrence University

“‘I was not afraid of the atom bomb’: Young Japanese Tuna Fishermen and Thermonuclear Tests in the Pacific, 1953-1962” Yuka Tsuchiya, Ehime University

“From ‘Chernobyl child’ to Cosmopolitan: Children as Carriers of a Transnational Nuclear Disaster Process” Melanie Arndt, Institute for East/SE European Studies

12:00-12:30 “Join the SHCY” Lunch, Party Room or New SUB Rooftop (To Be confirmed)

12:30-1:45 Jim Marten, Journal of the History of Childhood and Youth Update, Old SUB 214/216

2:00-3:30 Session I

I1, Old SUB 205: Constructions of Childhood in Colonial and Post-Colonial India

Chair: Emma Alexander, University of Winnipeg or TBA

“Conservative Parenting in a Colonized Society: Bhudeb Mukhopadhyay and Bengali Familiality” Satadru Sen, City University of New York

“Politicized Bodies: Childhoods and Nationalist Contestations in Late Colonial Bengal”
Sudipa Topdar, Illinois State University

“Sarkar, Sardar and Ma-Bap: The relational world of the working child in Western India 1850-1940” Emma Alexander, University of Winnipeg

“Discipline, Devotion and the Negotiation of Belonging: ‘Orphan’ Refugee Boys in the Aftermath of Partition” Uditi Sen, Hampshire College

I2, Old SUB 211: The shadow of the past I: Theoretical and conceptual frameworks for understanding historical child abuse and its contemporary relevance

Chair: Johanna Sköld, Linköping University

“A Century of ‘Deviant Victims’” Carol Brennan, University of Buckingham

“‘I’ve got a good memory ... but I can't write anything down’: Remembering childhood selves before the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse”
Fiona Davis, Australian Catholic University

“Young Men’s Sexual Abuse of Their Underage Sisters in Austria in the Second Half of the 20th Century” Sonja Matter, University of Bern

I3, Old SUB 207/09: Beyond the Eyeglasses: Locating Intellectual Girls in Modern American and Soviet Culture

Chair: Babette Faehmel, Schenectady County Community College

“‘To Play, You Need a Friend, a Nimble Mind and a Book’: Book Reviews and Intellectual Culture in Postwar Seventeen Magazine” Jill E. Anderson, Georgia State University

“Girls, Geeks, and Nerd Girls: Promoting Engineering to American Young Women, 1964-2014” Amy Sue Bix, Iowa State University

“Young and Antimodern: The Affective World of a Girl Intellectual in the 1910s”
Allison Miller, University of Southern California

“Teens Lost in Space: Smart Girls Exploring the Cosmos in Cold War America and the Soviet Union” Roshanna Sylvester, DePaul University

I4, Old SUB Council: “Home” Children: Exploring Relationships in Institutions for Children

Chair: Megan Birk, University of Texas Pan American

“Writing ‘Home’: Indentured Children’s Letters to the Colored Orphan Asylum” Sarah Mulhall Adelman, Framingham State University

“‘You have been my best friend’: Reading the Student-Teacher Relationship in the Letters of Ragged School Emigrants Between 1850-1870” Laura M. Mair, University of Edinburgh

“Glimpses of Family: What Do the Records Tell Us about the Families of Children in Care?” Sharron Lane, Australian Catholic University

“Grown Up Children of the Orphanage: Lasting Relationships in the Washington City Orphan Asylum” Jamalin Harp, Texas Christian University

I5, Old SUB 214/16: Creating Communities: Transnational Histories of Children's Media

Chair: Gary Cross, The Pennsylvania State University

“As Culture Free As TV Can Be: National Identities and Universal Truths in Children’s Television” Helle Strandgaard Jensen, University of Copenhagen

“The Concept Of Nationality And Music in TV Series for Children” Ingeborg Lunde Vestad, Hedmark University College (Presented by Helle Strandgaard Jensen)

“News for Children or Children’s News? Public service television for children in a changing media environment” Christa Lykke Christensen, University of Copenhagen

“Disney’s Construction of Imagined Communities Across Europe” Katalin Lustyik, Ithaca College

I6, Old SUB 212A: Care/Coercion/Conformity: Relationships between children, youths, and the adult world of authority

Chair: Tamara Myers, University of British Columbia

“Masculinity And Physicality In Police-Led Boys’ Clubs in England, 1918-1960” Beth Wilburn, Open University

““These Prisons Are Not Pleasant Places”: Children’s Encounters With Confinement in the Antebellum United States” Jonathan Nash, College of Saint Benedict & Saint John's University

“Defining the Boundaries of ‘Normal’ Teenage Freedoms: Adolescent Girls and Challenges to the Authority of Schools, Parents, and Police in the 1960 Los Angeles Court Juvenile Court” Carrie Hagan, Carnegie Mellon University

“ ‘The Rubbish Children’ and the Righteous Expert: Contrasting Expert Opinion on Child Raising and Abusive Practices in Children’s Homes in Victoria, 1950 – 1970” Kate Gaffney, The Australian Catholic University

3:30-4:00 Coffee Break, Old SUB Party Room

4:00-5:30 Session J

J1, Old SUB 214/16: Children and Colonial Relations: Vectors, 'Vaccines' and Points of Contact

Chair: Richard Ivan Jobs, Pacific University

PANEL CO-SPONSORED by the Centre for the Humanities and Medicine at the University of Hong Kong <http://www.chm.hku.hk/>

“Carrying the Pox: The Use of Children and Ideals of Childhood in Early British and Imperial Campaigns Against Smallpox” Lydia Murdoch, Vassar College

“ ‘Contagious Agents’: The Leper Children of Saigon and Singapore” David M. Pomfret, University of Hong Kong

“In Search of Fresh Air: Health, Environment and Child Welfare in Late Victorian Britain” Oliver Green, Queen Mary University of London

Contested Child(hoods) at the Age of “Independence”: Narratives of the Maria Hertogh Controversy in British Malaya (1950), Christina Wu, Université catholique de Louvain

J2, Old SUB 212A: The shadow of the past II: Theoretical and conceptual frameworks for understanding historical child abuse and its contemporary relevance

Chair: Fiona Davis, Australian Catholic University

“Child abuse and Public Inquiries: Tracing the Rise of a Culture of Disclosure” Katie Wright, University of Melbourne

“The Truth about Abuse: A Comparative Approach to Inquiry Narratives on Historic Child Abuse” Johanna Sköld, Linköping University

“Redress Schemes Addressing Historical Child Abuse: Enhancing Therapeutic Consequences for Survivors?” Ingunn Studsrod, University of Stavanger

J3, Old SUB 207/09: Imagining Colonial Futures: Children and the Politics of Belonging in the British Colonial World

Chair: Rhonda A. Semple, St. Francis Xavier University

“Making Missionary Children: Religion, Culture and Juvenile Deviance” Emily Manktelow, University of Kent

“Re-imagining belonging: children’s literature and British imperial space at the turn of the nineteenth century” Onni Gust, University of Nottingham

“Adopting Imperialism: Child-Care, Education and Families in 19th century Sierra Leone and Liberia” Christine Whyte, Bayreuth University

“Children and the temporal logics of settler colonialism, British Columbia 1858-1914” Laura Ishiguro, University of British Columbia

J4, Old SUB Council: Captive Childhoods: Citizenship, Gender and Labor in the Atlantic World

Chair: Elizabeth Kuznesof, University of Kansas

“‘Every house needs One’: Apprenticeship and Child Labour in Industrial Schools in Colonial Jamaica, 1900-1938” Shani Roper, Smith College

“Between Apprentice and Bondsman: West African “Re-Captive” Children and Nineteenth-Century Missions” Benjamin N. Lawrance, Rochester Institute of Technology

“The Other Un-Free Children in Early America: Pauper Apprenticeship and Gradual Emancipation” Ruth Wallis Herndon, Bowling Green State University

J5, Old SUB 205: War's Impact: Representations and Realities

Chair: Erica Fraser, Carleton University

“The Myth of the Young Man’s War: Age and Representation in World War I” Amanda Brian, Coastal Carolina University

“War Art in the German Classroom: How German Children Imagined World War One”
Mervi Kaarninen, University of Tampere

“The Vietnam War and the Lives of American Children” Joel P. Rhodes, Southeast Missouri State University