

Tuesday, June 25, 2013

10:00-10:30

Registration and Coffee

Pope A13/A14

Tuesday, June 25, 2013

10:30-12:00

Session 1 Pope A1

Twentieth Century Wars and Their Aftermaths

James Marten, chair

James Greenhalgh

“Keep Smiling Through”: Home, Gendered Spaces and the Performance of Girlhood in Narratives of the Blitz

Wayne M. Riggs

“A Wholesome Discipline”: British Youth in the Established Churches during the Great War

Vassiliki Theodorou and Vassiliki Vassiloudi

Re-educating Deviant Children during the Early Twentieth Century in Greece: The Transition from Philanthropic to Scientific

Session 2 Pope A17

Dividing Lines: Explorations in Space, Spheres, and Chronological Age in the United States

Lakisha Simmons, chair and discussant

Corinne T. Field

Chronological Age and Separate Spheres: The Spatial Imaginary and the Right to Vote at Age Twenty-One in Antebellum America

Nicholas L. Syrett

Child Marriage and the Meanings of Age in the Twentieth-Century Rural United States

Leslie Paris

“You Better Have Your Way With Me”: Adolescent Girls and Modern American Sexual Culture

Session 3Portland E126

Spaces of Integration and Education

Alice Hearst, Chair

Gretchen Long, discussant

Kabria Baumgartner

Children of the Commonwealth: Black Girls and School Desegregation in Antebellum Massachusetts

Françoise N. Hamlin

Freedom's Cost: Anne Moody and the Civil Rights Movement

Laura L. Lovett

The Campaign to Educate Homeless Children in the United States

Session 4Physics C04

Plasticine Cities

Simon Sleight, chair

Lillian Llamas-Acosta

"The Great Book of the City": Children's Narratives of the Excluding City

HåkanForsell

Orientations and Instructions: Molding the Urban Experience of the Young, 1914-1930

Simon Sleight

Exploring the "Youthscape": An Interdisciplinary Approach to the Spaces of the Past

Rebecca King Cerling

Inside the Walls: Toward an Understanding of Children's Place in Eleventh-Century English Monastic Life

Tuesday, June 25, 2013

12.00-1.00

Lunch

Pope A13/A14

Tuesday, June 25, 2013
1:00-2:30

Session 5Pope A1

Educative Spaces in Novels and Diaries: Young Readers and Writers in the United States, the United Kingdom, and Germany

Jane Potter, chair

Andrew P. Haley

“Pass the Salt”: Children’s Literature and the Family Meal

Nancy G. Rosoff

“There are other people to consider besides myself”: Lessons Offered from American and British School and College Fiction

AnjaTschörtner

“If we girls are not even meant to think seriously, they could just as well drown us like they do in China!”:German Popular Girls’ Fiction and the Impact on its Readership’s Position in Wilhelmine Society

Alison Twells

The Pyramid Formation: Identity, Class, and Space in the Diary of a Scholarship Girl, 1938-1939

Session 6Pope A17

Children, Childhood and the Mobilizing, Altering And Dissolving of National Identities in Modern Europe

Elizabeth White, chair

Emily Baugahn

The Save the Children Fund, Child Rights, and Russian Refugee Children, 1920-1930

Sam Johnson

Anglo-Jewish Anxieties and the Cheder

Matthias Neumann

Mobilising Children into the National Space: Patriotic War Culture in Kiev during World War I

Elizabeth White

“My Little Russia”: National Schools for Russian Children in Inter-War Europe

Session 7Physics C04

Houses, Homes and Hang-outs: Children and Teens in Postwar City and Suburb

Sharon Wall, chair

Sharon Park

Locating Children and Youth in Cultural Representations of Suburbia, 1945-1979

Sharon Wall

“Some of them have never had a real home”: Making Room for Teenagers in the Canadian Maternity Home, 1945-61

Katharine Rollwagen

Saturdays at the Store: Canadian urban high school students in Eaton's department stores, 1940-1960

Session 8Portland E126

Race, Space, and Place in the United States

James Marten, chair

Gretchen Long

Jim Crow Summertime: A Place of Violence and Comfort

Ben Davidson

Children, Childhood, and the Meaning of Emancipation during the American Civil War and Reconstruction

Joan Bryant

Children and the Place of Suffering in Civil Rights Era Protest

Session 9Physics C05

Creating the Useful American Child

Renee Sentilles, chair and discussant

Natalie Jeanne Geeza

Practice Makes Perfect: The Use of “Practice Apartments” and Live Children in Home Economics Courses of the 1910s-20s

Jennifer Light

Virtual Experience and Child Socialization in the United States, 1895-1945

Sarah Anne Carter

The Kitchen-Garden: Shaping Girls into Ideal Servants through Kindergarten Methods, 1876-1910

Kathryn B. Irving

Improvable Idiots: Schools for Idiotic Children and Normal Child Development in Nineteenth-Century America

Tuesday, June 25, 2013
2:45-4:15

Session 10 Pope A1

Space, Consumption, Liberation, and Memory in Twentieth-Century American Youth

Rebecca de Schweinitz, chair and discussant

Gary Cross

American Teen Car Culture in Detroit: Rodding, Cruising, and Memory

James Block

Spaces of Incipient Youth Opposition: Locating Emergent Sites of 1960s Generational Release in the Regulated Culture of the 1950s

Lincoln Geraghty

(Re)Collecting Memories of Childhood: Comics, Youth, and Nostalgia at the San Diego Comic-Con

Session 11 Pope A17

“A place for everything . . .” Children and Their Spaces in Literature and Libraries

Lynne (E. F.) McKechnie, chair

Joanna L Kerr

Liminal Spaces and the Literary Tourist

Melanie Kimball

A Place to Call Home: Imagined Spaces in the Orphan Narrative

Lynne (E. F.) McKechnie and Brittany Coulter

The Children’s Room: Interrogating the Spaces Created by Adults for Children in Public Libraries

Ase Kristine Tveit
Norwegian Children's Libraries: Spaces in a Transforming Childhood

Session 12Physics C04
Spaces of Childhood in the Memory of War and Genocide
Delene Case White, chair

Delene Case White
Challenges to East German Memory Politics: Jurek Becker's Fictional Space of Children in the Holocaust

Megan Harrison
Trauma Depiction in Refugee Memoirs for Children

YehuditInbar
A World Void of Space: the Fate of the Jewish Child in the Holocaust

Dana Mihăilescu
Traumatic Echoes of Memories in Child-Survivors' Narratives of the Holocaust: The Polish Experiences of Michal Głowiński and HenrykGrynberg

Session 13Portland E126
Mapping the Sources of Space: The Methodological Challenges of Recreating Children's Geographies
Mary-Clare Martin, chair and discussant

Kristine Alexander
Picturing Girl Guides Worldwide: Photography and the Historical Creation of National and Colonial Spaces

Susan A. Miller
"A Boy-sized State": Youth-produced Newspapers and the Construction of Civic Space

KrysVerrall and Jeffrey Canton
Childhood, Spaces, and Picture Book Memoirs

Session 14Physics C05

Claiming Territory: Youth, Rebellion, and Spatial Politics in Latin America

Marta Gutman, chair and discussant

Liz Donato

The Politics of the Poetic City: The Valparaíso Architecture School's Open City, 1970s-1980s

Dorota Biczel

"Nothing political": Limeñancultural underground and remaking of the politics of the 1980s

Sebastian Vidal

Running the Risk: Art and Social Disobedience in Chile

Luisa Valle

The Festival and the City: Mobility and Participation in the Construction of Space

Tuesday, June 25, 2013

4:15-4:45

Tea

Pope A13/A14

Tuesday, June 25, 2013

4:45-6:15

Plenary Session

Pope C16

The Spaces of Childhood: A Conversation on Rooms as Evidence

Marta Gutman, Moderator

Ning de Coninck-Smith

Karen Sanchez-Eppler

Abigail A. Van Slyck

Tuesday, June 25, 2013

6:30

Reception, Ancaster Hall

Wednesday, June 26, 2013
8:30-10:00

Session 15 Physics C27

Space and Security in the History of Childhood and Youth

Karen Vallgård, chair and discussant

Heini Hakosalo

Germ-Free Spaces for Tuberculosis-Threatened Infants: Finnish Christmas Seal Homes, 1936–73

Seija Jalagin

To Save and to Safeguard: Finnish Mission School for Jewish Children in Jerusalem, 1945–1968

Marianne Junila

Unprotected? Upper Class Girls' Experiences of Physical And Social Security in Civil War

Kaisa Vehkalahti

Negotiating Danger and Safety: Teen-Age Girls and Urban Space in Finland, 1945–1965

Session 16 Pope A1

Where Are the Memories? The Role of Place in Reconstructing Memories of Childhoods in Orphanages and Foster Care

Shurlee Swain, chair and discussant

Nell Musgrove

The Spectre of the Orphanage: A Mixed Blessing?

Lieselot De Wilde

Remembering the Ghent Orphan Houses (1945-1984): Keeping the Memory Alive

Johanna Sköld

After Care: The Control of and Help to Care Leavers in a Community of Foster Care

Session 17Pope A17

Spaces of Violence and Death, I: Children, Home, and Families

Dirk Schumann, chair

Lydia Murdoch

Corpses Among the Living: Embattled Domestic Spaces and Children's Responses to Death in Nineteenth-Century England

Kathryn Bridge

"He was not expected to live through the night...": Contagious Diseases and Death Shape Children's Lives and the Spaces of Historical Childhood in Western Canadian Pioneer Society

Heidi Morrison

When the Home Ceases to be a Place of Refuge: War-torn Living Rooms, Unsafe Childhoods, and Memory

Shauna Vey

"Obeying My Father": Child Actors Prioritizing Danger and Obligation on Stage and Silent Screen Sets

Session 18Physics C05

Youth and Transnational Utopian Spaces in the early Twentieth Century

Susan Miller, chair and discussant

Matthew James Peaple

Imagining Europe in the German Youth Movement, 1900 – 1933

James Trepanier

"We're here because this is our future": The Canadian Boy Scouts' Arctic Jamborees

Björn Lundberg

The Natural Space: Place-Making and Nature Experience in the Swedish Scout Movement, 1910-1930

Session 19Portland E126

Embodied Spaces and Places: Children On and Away from the Frontlines, 1939-1970

Kristine Alexander, chair

John Welshman
 Departure, Arrival, and Return: Evacuation and Place in Wartime Britain

Barbara Lorezkowski
 Sensing War: Children's Memories of the Wartime Atlantic, 1939-1945

Tarah Brookfield
 A Refuge from the Blitz and the Nukes: British & Canadian youth on Grindstone Isle

Claire L. Halstead
 "I hope there are not too many air raids in Bristol": Constructions of Space in the Evacuation of British Children to Canada during the Second World War

Session 20 Physics C04

Transforming Childhood and Youth: Interior and Exterior Spaces for Play and Recreation, 1600-1950

Simon Sleight, chair and discussant

Suzanne Conway
 Transforming the Image: Play and Toys in Domestic Interiors and Outdoor Spaces in Seventeenth and Eighteenth-Century Art in the Netherlands, France and Britain

Mary-Clare Martin
 Evangelization or Acculturation? Play, Missionary Families, and Children's Spatial Interactions in New Zealand, Africa, India, and China, 1780-1880

Tamar Zinguer
 The History of the Sandbox

Wednesday, June 26, 2013

10:00-10:30

Coffee

Pope A13/A14

Wednesday, June 26, 2013
10:30-12:00

Session 21 Physics C27

Roundtable: Critical Perspectives on Liberal Child Socialization in the United States

A panel discussion about the historical creation of citizen consent and the role of youth; the focus is James Block's The Crucible of Consent: American Child Rearing and the Forging of a Liberal Society (Harvard University Press, 2012).

Jonas Qvorsebo, moderator
 Rebecca de Schweinitz
 Lars Trägårdh
 Barry Percy-Smith
 James E. Block

Session 22 Pope A1

Form and Function: The Spaces of Institutional Childhood

Johanna Sköld, chair and discussant

Shurlee Swain
 Institutionalized Childhood: The Orphanage Remembered

Gerald Cradock
 "Friendless and Helpless": Orphaned Immigrants in Late Nineteenth-Century North America

Kjersti Ericsson
 Islands in the Shadow: Institutions for Boys

Session 23 Pope A17

Spaces of Violence and Death II: Children Outside the Home

Leslie Paris, chair

Pablo Toro Blanco
 Places of Pain and Excesses: The Scenes of Punishment and Violence in Chilean Secondary Education, 1830-1900

Kathleen Jones
Deaths in State Reform Schools: How Race and Space Shape the Meanings of Youth Suicide

Tamara Myers
“Educational Gore”: Children, Death, and Urban Policing in Mid-Twentieth-Century North America

Session 24 Physics C05
Educating the Minds of Children: British Efforts and Indigenous Responses in South Asia
Stephanie Olsen, chair

Heather Ellis
The BAAS, Science Education, and Training in Manliness, 1870-1914

Stephanie Olsen
An Ideal Boy: Late Nineteenth- and Twentieth-Century Models of British and Indian Manly Character

Swapna Banerjee
Subalternity and Fatherhood: Father-Child Experience at the Crossroads of the Empire, Nineteenth and Early-Twentieth-Century India

Emma Alexander
The Rather Unsuitable Boy: The Colonial State and Land-owning Families in Late Nineteenth-Century Western India

Session 25 Portland E126
Making Sense of Urban Space
Michael B. Kahan, chair

Deniz Arzuk
Split Cities, Split Childhoods: Spaces of New Urban Childhood

Patricia Wijntuin
“I like my neighbourhood”: The Place Attachment of Moroccan Youth in Utrecht, The Netherlands

Stephanie Sutton
The Child in the City: The Material Culture of Childhood in the Urban Landscape

Session 26 Physics C04
Architecture, Space, and Institutions
 Larry Prochner, chair

Diana Ramirez-Jasso
 A Room that Teaches How to Think: Childhood, Space, and Cognition in C. H. Wolke's Denklehrzimmer

Larry Prochner
 Managing Space and Relationships in Nineteenth-Century Infant School Galleries

Codruta Alina Pohrib
 Communist Chronotopes: Romanian Pioneer Palaces as Regulatory Spaces for Children

Roy Kozlovsky
 Children in Hospital: Deprivation, Separation, and the Postwar Environments of Cure

Wednesday, June 26, 2013

12:00-12:45

Lunch

Pope A13/A14

Wednesday, June 26, 2013

12:45-1:45

Session 27 Pope C16

The Past, Present, and Future of the Journal of the History of Childhood and Youth: Discussion and Member Feedback

Michael Grossberg, Moderator

Karen Sanchez-Eppler

Susan Miller

Alice Hearst

James Marten

In summer 2013 the founding editors of JHCY will step aside and Jim Marten will take over. Please join us as we assess the first six years of the JHCY and discuss possibilities for its future.

Wednesday, June 26, 2013
2:00-3:30

Session 28 Physics C27

Inside and Out: Physical and Embodied Spaces in Twenty and Twenty-first-century Anglo-American Children's Literature and Media

Lynn Vallone, chair

Franziska Kohlt

Dreaming Wonderland: The Construction of Imaginary Space in Victorian Children's Literature

Jane Suzanne Carroll

The Lion, the Witch and the Set-Piece: How Geographical Theories Unlock the Strange-Familiar Worlds of Domestic Fantasy

Kimberley Reynolds

Ideal Homes for Modern Children: The Battle Between Tradition And Modernity in the Depiction of Homes and Houses in Early Twentieth-Century British Children's Literature

Lynne Vallone

Taking up Space: Race, Class and the Obese Girl in Literature and in Life

Session 29 Pope A1

Spaces of Separation, Sites of Seclusion: Children, Families and Temporary Displacement in the Twentieth Century

Dora Vargha, chair

Friederike Kind-Kovacs

Child Transports Across the Austro-Hungarian Empire

Jennifer Rasell

In the Pawn House: In Between Parents and the Children's Home

Dora Vargha

Hospital-Mothers and Children Reborn: Polio Patient Care in Communist Hungary 1956-1963

Kathleen Vonsgathorn

"A Real Home": Separation, Negotiation, and Family at the Kumi Children's Leper Home, Uganda, 1930-1950

Session 30Pope A17

Spaces of Violence and Death III: Roundtable and audience discussion

David Pomfret, moderator

Leslie Paris

Dirk Schumann

Session 31Physics C05

Roundtable: Colonies in Africa or Eastern Europe? Imagining Utopian Spaces in the German Youth Movement from Imperial to Nazi Germany

Jeff Bowersox, moderator

Jeff Bowersox

A New Era Dawns in the African Sun: Colonial Utopias and German Scouting before the Great War

Luke Springman

Technological Fantasies: Conquering Formidable and Forbidden Terrains in German Popular Culture of the Weimar Republic

Robbert-Jan Adriaansen

Eastern Europe as a Moral Playground: Space and Utopia in the BündischeJugend(1920-1933)

Caroline Mezger

Entangled Utopias: The Nazi Mobilization of Ethnic German Youths in Southeastern Europe, 1930s-1944

Session 32Portland E126

Conjugating Technology and Childhood: A Transatlantic Look

Nina E. Lerman, chair and discussant

Katie Day Good

The Untutored Are Afforded Glimpses of the World: Making a Place for Media Technology in the Post-World War I American Classroom

Amy Bix

Toying with Technologies for Boys and for Girls: Gendered Educational Spaces and Play Spaces in Post-World War II Childhood

Hilde Harmsen

“Goodbye Earth”: Aerospace in Dutch Children’s Literature, 1945-1970

Guillaume de Syon
 “So Safe even a Kid could Fly”: The Trope of Childhood in Airline Advertising, 1920-1990

Session 33 Physics C04
Youth Centers: Architectures of Social Formation
 Susanne Pietsch, chair
 Andreas Müller, discussant

Tom Avermaete
 Thousand Youth Clubs: Leisure, Architecture and the Rejuvenation of 1960s France

Peter Blundell Jones
 Peter Hübner’s Self-build Youth Clubs

Dolf Broekhuizen
 A Protest of the Mind, an Exaltation of the Soul: The Origins of the Youth Centre Movement

Marco Di Nallo
 From Playgrounds to “Recreation Centers”: Youth Policies in Zurich in the 1950s

Wednesday, June 26, 2013

3:30-4:00

Tea

Pope A13/A14

Wednesday, June 26, 2013

4:00-5:30

Session 34 Pope A1
Roundtable: Global Geographies of Segregation: Childhood and Race
 Lakisha Simmons, moderator

Brett Bebbler
Urban Education and Segregation in Britain: The “Bussing” Controversy in 1960s Ealing

Susan Eckelmann
“Racial Segregation ... Is a Crime”: International Youth, Conceptions of Race, and Segregated Spaces of Sorrow

LaKisha Simmons
"A Street Where Girls Were Meddled": Childhood, Segregation, and Street Harassment

Daniel Walther
Space and Race: Raising White Children in German Namibia, 1884-1914

Session 35
Pope A17
Children and the Law
Michael Grossberg, chair

Carlos Zúñiga Nieto
The Social World of Children and Youths in Temporary Custody in Yucatan, Mexico 1885-1920

Timothy Cole
“Make the 18-Year-Old an Entirely Legal Person:” Re-evaluating the Age of Majority in the 1970s United States

Yen-Chi Liu
Law’s Boundaries: Children and the Legal Production of Space in Taiwan

Julie Solow Stein
Pregnancy and Education in Postwar United States

Session 36
Physics C05
School Space: U.S. Education and the Boundaries of Race, Class, and Gender
Elizabeth Clapp, chair and discussant

Jessie B. Ramey
Space for Learning: From Indentured Orphans to Modern Grassroots Youth Advocacy in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Kyle E. Ciani
Reserved Space: Public Education in post-World War II Navajo Communities

Benjamin Houston
The Spatiality of Race: School Desegregation and City Building in Nashville, Tennessee

Session 38Physics C04
Ideal Places: Schoolhouses, the Built Environment, and Education
Marta Gutman, chair and discussant

Melissa Bingmann
Prep School Cowboys: The American Southwest and the Education of the Elite

Eleanor L. Rivera
Space to Learn: Creating an Educational Built Environment in Seine-Inférieure

AdeebDaoudNaccache
Body Language and Freedom Under the Grasp of Safety Regulations: Using the Experimental Kindergarten at Nazareth Illit as a Case Study

Wednesday, June 26, 2013

5:45-6:45

Business Meeting

Pope C16

Wednesday, June 26, 2013

7:30

Dinner, President's Address, Awards

Ancaster Hall

Thursday, June 27, 2013

8:30-10:00

Session 39Portland E127

Victorian and Edwardian Childhood Spaces

Karen Sanchez-Eppler, chair and discussant

Ruth Colton

Shaping the “Natural” Child in Literature and the Late-Victorian Public Park

Mike Mantin

“He should be kept away from bad boys”: Home Lives, Leisure and Morality Outside the Cambrian Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, 1847-1914

Claudia Soares

“A permanent environment of brightness, warmth and homeliness”: Domesticity, Sociability and Institutional Spaces in the Waifs and Strays Society, 1881-1914

Mary Hatfield

Playing with Gender: Popular Representations of Boyhood and Girlhood in Early Twentieth-Century Ireland

Session 40Pope A1

Contested Spaces: Parenthood, Custody and Childcare in England, 1860-1950

Daniel Grey, chair and discussant

Gail Savage

Neutral Spaces: Custodial Arrangements in Nineteenth-Century Divorce Cases

Ginger Frost

“A Very Strong Claim to the Child”: Reclaiming Children from the London Foundling Hospital, 1860-1930

Laura King

“Wait till your father gets home”? A Socio-Cultural History of the Father’s Role in Britain, c. 1914-1939

Angela Davis

Child Daycare Practice and Provision in Britain c. 1939-1979

Session 41Pope A17

Making Their Way: Children and the Spaces of Work

Gary Cross, chair

Maria Papathanassiou

Play, Tramping, Work and Petty Crime: Uses of Public Space by Poor Children in Early Twentieth-Century Vienna

Michael B. Kahan

The Ethnic Economy and Moral Geography of Child Begging in Late-Nineteenth-Century Philadelphia

Nicoleta Roman

Poor Children and Work in Wallachia (1830–1860): Spaces, Networks and Options

DyanColclough

Backstage: A Morally Dangerous Space or a Safe Haven for Victorian Children?

Session 42Portland E125

Colonial Childhoods

Nicholas Syrett, chair and discussant

Corrie Decker

Building Consensus and Exclusion: The Government Indian Girls' School in Colonial Mombasa, East Africa

JakobZollmann

Childhood in Southern Africa, 1880-1920s: Space and Education in Colonial Societies

IswarParida

School as a Colonial Space for Constructing Childhood in the British Odisha

Session 43Portland E126

Educational Spaces Outside the Classroom

Ning de Coninck-Smith, chair and discussant

Lisa Rosén Rasmussen

Constructing Landscapes of Learning While Demolishing Classroom Walls: Educational Spaces for the Danish Primary and Lower Secondary School in the Late Twentieth-Century

Anna Larsson

A Cultural History of the Swedish Schoolyard: The Outdoor Areas of The School as an Educational and Social Space. 1611-2011

BjörnNorlin

The Birth of the School Playground: Policy Making, Recess Activities and Outdoor Educational Spaces in Pre-Modern Sweden

Thursday, June 27, 2013

10:00-10:30

Coffee

Pope A13/A14

Thursday, June 27, 2013

10:30-12:00

Session 44Portland E127

Holiday Spaces for Children and the Transmission of Cultural Models: The Case of the "Colonie" in Italy

TizianaPironi, chair

Elena Musiani, discussant

Roberta Mira

Coloniefor Children in Italy from the 19th Century to the End of the Second World War

SimonaSalustri

Colonieand Fascism. A Model of Education

Eloisa Betti

Development of Coloniein Post-War Italy and the Role of the Union of Italian Women (UDI)

Session 45Pope A17

The Meanings of "Home": Children Growing Up Outside the Family in Twentieth-Century Europe and the United States

Tamara Myers, chair and discussant

BirgitteSoland

What Makes a Home? Growing Up in American Orphanages, 1920-1995

Michelle Mouton
Searching for Helga: Lost Children and Disrupted Families in Germany 1945-1955

Elisabeth Engberg
The Indigenous Experience of Fostering in Northern Sweden

Session 46Pope A1
Explorations in Non-Modern Childhoods: Rethinking the Story of Modernity
Jonas Qvarsebo, chair and discussant

Kristin Williams
“Children’s Literature Before Children’s Literature? Visualizing the Child in Seventeenth and Eighteenth-Century Japan

Patrick J. Ryan
The Terms of Master-Servant Childhood in Medieval England: A Study in Historical Ontology

Session 47Portland E125
Race, Empire, and Childhood
Corrie Decker: chair and discussant

Karen Vallgård
Loving the Colonized Children: Danish Missionaries in Colonial South India

Ellen Filor
“Our boarding schools teem with East and West India bastards of various shades of colour”: The Experiences of Mixed-Race Children in Provincial Scotland, 1760-1830

David M. Pomfret
“No Day Without a Deed to Crown It”: Ministering Children in Colonial Asia

Session 48Portland E126
Educational Designs: Perspectives on the Education of Children and Adolescents in Families and Networks, 1680s-1960s
Adriana Benzaquén, chair

Adriana Benzaquén

A Tale of Two Younger Sons: Education, Networks and Travel in the Early Eighteenth Century

Ross W. Beales

“Ah wretched Harvard to which I had design’d him!”: The Education of a Minister’s Sons

Annmarie Valdes

Fashioning a Young Girl’s Education: Educational Networks and Emergent Educational Influence during the Early Republic

Lisa M. Edwards

Rome as a Physical and Spiritual Environment: The Experiences of Latin American Seminarians, 1858-1962

Thursday, June 27, 2013

12:15-12:45

Luncheon

Pope A13/A14

then

Plenary

12.45-1.45

Pope C16

“Telling the quiet stories of educational design: the legacy of Mary Medd, 1907-2005”

Catherine Burke

Senior Lecturer in the History of Education at the Faculty of Education, University of Cambridge

President-elect of the History of Education Society UK

Thursday, June 27, 2013
2:00-3:30

Session 49Pope A1

Girlhood Beyond the Doll Corner: Discursive, Performative, and Historical Spaces

Miriam Forman-Brunell, chair and discussant

Vanessa Rutherford

Technologies of Gender: Doll Discourses in Ireland, 1801-1909

Alexandra Lloyd

Dolls and Play: Material Culture and Memories of Girlhoods in Germany, 1933-1945

Jennifer Dawn Whitney

Some Assembly Required: Black Barbie and the Fabrication of Nicki Minaj

Session 50Physics C04

From the School to the Streets: Children, Youth, and Religious Spaces

Rebecca De Schweinitz, chair

Jon Pahl, discussant

Rachel Coleman

“What Johnny Should Read”: Evangelicals and the Rise of the Christian School Movement

Natalie K. Rose

“A Little Diversion”: Church Dances and Mormon Adolescent Girls, 1890 to 1920

Eve Carroll-Dwyer

Constructing a Transnational Space: The Christian Endeavor Movement

Session 51Physics C05

Displacement, Delinquency, Disorder: Spaces of Exclusion and Places of Belonging in Russian/Soviet Childhood in the First Half of the Twentieth Century

Maiken Umbach, chair

Andy Byford

Territories of Expertise: Juvenile Delinquency as Institutional/Epistemic Space in Late Imperial and Early Soviet Russia

Nick Baron

“Flags on the Battlements”: Child Displacement and Re-Placement in the USSR, 1920s and 1930s

Rosaria Franco

Child Protection, State Security and Social Space in the USSR, 1930s and 1940s

Olga Kucherenko

Juvenile Colonies as “Spaces of Childhood” during the Great Patriotic War, 1941-1945

Siobhan Peeling

The Culture of the Yard: Soviet Children and Urban Space in the USSR, late 1940s

Session 52 Physics C27

Anarchism, Texts and Children

Michael Fielding, chair and discussant

Ian Grosvenor, Frank Simon, and Bruno Vanobbergen

Spaces of Revolt: Children in Anarchistic Film: Jean Vigo’s “Zéro de Conduite” (1933)

Catherine Burke

Fleeting Pockets of Anarchy: Colin Ward and the Exploding School

Emily Charkin

“Building The Natural Society of the Future”: The Peckham Experiment (1943) as an Anarchist Account of Childhood and Education

Thursday, June 27, 2013

3:30-4:00
Tea and Disperse
Pope A13/A14